General Accounting Office, 2002 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)53081622 Subject: Contracting out -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Within 1 year of initial implementation of the new process, and again 1 year later, the Director of OMB should submit a detailed report to the Congress identifying the costs of implementing the new process, any savings expected to be achieved, the expected gains in efficiency or effectiveness of agency programs, the impact on affected federal employees, and any lessons learned as a result of the use of this process together with any recommendations for appropriate legislation. GAO would review each of these OMB reports and provide its independent assessment to the Congress. The Panel anticipated that OMB would use the results of its reviews to make any needed mid-course corrections. On the basis of the results generated during the demonstration period, and on the reports submitted by OMB and GAO, the Congress will then be in a position to determine the need for any additional legislation. The federal government is in a time of transition, and we face a range...
