Excerpt: . . . people that have worked on the F A-22, it is apparent that its phenomenal capability has come at the price of many thousands, perhaps a million, man-years. Much has changed in the world since the initial formulation of requirements for the F A-22. In 1981, the President of the United States was Ronald Reagan, and the Prime Minister of New Zealand was Robert Muldoon. The military-strategic environment was dominated by fears of nuclear war, and Afghanistan was sending a chill through superpower relations after a brief period of dtente. Since then, the United States has gone through three more Presidents ( and will soon have a fourth ), and New Zealand has seen seven more Prime Ministers on the Treasury benches. China, rather than the Soviet Union, has become the greatest threat to American power. It is rather unlikely that Russian tanks will stream through the Fulda Gap on a few hours notice, protected by an...
