As Christians we need to take stock of our faith and its relationship to the world around us. In The Story, John Harris challenges the thoughtful to do just that and provides them with an insight into the issues of today's socioeconomic climate. As the reader you will find yourself with many emotions as this story unfolds. It's a breathtaking story that is a must read. It will be a page-turner to the very end. This story relates to what God preached about violence, sex and true faith in God. The majority of our youth do not take guidance from their parents, teachers or church - it comes from friends, the media and their own attitude toward supervision. The younger generation could definitely relate to this short story. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
