

The God Who Is Love: Explaining Christianity from Its Center

By Shane Kapler

Out of the Box LLC. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 316 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.8in. Can people in a scientific age honestly believe in God? If so, how can we hear His voice? With such a variety of religious claims, why would someone become a Christian, or embrace a form of it as seemingly as archaic as Catholicism? Join one young man's struggle for answers and discover the Trinitarian revelation at Christianity's heart. This book by Shane Kapler is an example of the new evangelization. . . He deals with the most profound and complex issues of our faith, and he does so with simplicity and clarity. Bishop Robert Hermann, Archdiocese of St. Louis. Shane Kapler has given us a compendium of truth borne along by a compelling narrative. His book is both a moving charismatic testimony and an engaging Catholic catechesis. That's a rare combination -- and a grace for the reader. Mike Aquilina, author of The Fathers of the Church and The Mass of the Early Christians. Executive Vice President, St. Paul Center for Biblical Theology. In the introduction, Kapler bills The God Who is Love as theological one-stop shopping. I'd say he delivered. A...
