

Yoruba Legends Illustrated Edition

By -

Paperback. Book Condition: New. Students Of Edgbarrow Schools (illustrator). Paperback. 102 pages. This book of Yoruba folklore, legends and tales has been illustrated by the students of Edgbarrow School in Berkshire, England as a special project to raise funds for the sponsorship of the SOS Childrens Village in Asiakwa, Ghana. The Yoruba people are descendants from a variety of West African communities. They are united by Geography, History, Religion and most importantly their Language. Many years ago, before the advent of the West African slave trade, the Yoruba people inhabited an area which stretched, along the coast of West Africa, all the way inward and down to Angola in South West Africa. Today this is not the case. The legends and fairy stories in this book belong to the Yoruba. They relate the adventures of men and animals, and try to explain the mysteries of Nature Why Women have Long Hair, How the Leopard got his Spots, the Three Magicians, the Boa-Constrictor, How the Elephant got his Trunk and more. These stories grew from the imagination of the people. We read these folk-tales for their quaintness and humour, for their sympathy with Nature, and because we find in them the ideas...
